Course Expectations

This class is one of the first graduate courses you will take. Many of you will be transitioning straight from undergraduate programs. It is important to note that expectations are different in a professional graduate program. There are two things, based upon my experience, that are important to learn as you progress through your career development. The first is to learn to read. It is important to develop the discipline to read journals, newspapers, websites, and other sources. Continually seek to improve your knowledge. This serves not only to improve your understanding of the environment you work and live in and the multiple viewpoints, but keeps you up to date on current trends in industry. The second is the old saying, "perception is reality". I try and stress this to my undergrad courses, but I expect graduate students to take this to heart. Start acting like a professional in everything you do and approach, including your courses. You may be a brilliant genius, but if you present yourself in a lazy, sloppy manner, people will see you that way and their perception will become reality, stifling any chance to prove yourself.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Grading Components

Final grading will be determined by the following components:

Midterm - 25%

Final - 25%

Self Management - 5%

The self-management exercises are short responses to professional development type tips and actions. The format of submitted documents will be informal and often without structure. The intention is that the student will have a professional development type portfolio to draw upon as they evaluate first job opportunities.

Case Study Report/IFH Participation - 5%

MHA students will be participating in the IFH curriculum. MPH students will be working on a case based project.

Team Case Reports/Presentation - 15%

There will be 9 “cases” that are assigned throughout the semester. Every team will have the opportunity to present one of the cases and lead/answer group discussion. Other teams that are not presenting will have individual questions regarding the case that will be assigned to them. This will also help facilitate a robust discussion on the case.

Topic Briefs – 15%

Groups will also be assigned topic briefs. These topics will be relevant to the management of health services organizations. The objective of this exercise is to help develop the critical analysis skills of synthesizing information on a critical topic and presenting information in a clear and succinct manner.

Peer Assessment - 10%

There will be two assessments of peer group performance. The first will be to provide corrective feedback. The second will count towards your final grade. The assessments will be done utilizing the CATME measurement tool.

Inclusive Learning Environment

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act."
